C1:

Grammar exercises:

3.1

1. I'm starting out early tomorrow morning.
2. I'm having some friends over for dinner on Saturday.
3. They reckon the Greenland ice sheet is going to melt within a few years.
4. I'm sure Hannah will persuade him to change his mind.
5. By the middle of the week temperatures will rise to 30°C.
6. Expect me when you see me.
7. What if I miss it?
8. I'm sure she will be enjoying herself.

3.2)

1. You'll freeze if you go out dressed like that.
2. When I retire next year, I'm going to do a lot of travelling around South America.
3. Look at that stupid cyclist! He's going to cause an accident.
4. If you just leave it there, I'll take it upstairs when I go.
5. What are you doing this evening? / Maybe I'll Skype Lydia.
6. Next week's concert will commence at 7.00.
7. Adele is doing a concert in Milan next month.
8. When Stefan is 50, Sofia will be 18.

3.3) Complete the sentences:

1.
a. All change, please — this train terminates here.
b. What time does our plane get to Athens?
c. The cat runs away from me as soon as I go near it.

2.
a. I'm going to buy some new shoes.
b. Apparently, she's going to have a major operation.
c. I've made a list of the things you're going to need for the field trip to Iceland.

3.
a. On April 1st next year I will have been working at the university for 25 years.
b. I'm sure she will have been watching it on TV in her hotel room.
c. By that time they will have been negotiating with the employers for 36 hours.

4.
a. Justin's not feeling well, so he won't be coming tonight after all.
b. Who will you be supporting in the World Cup final, France or Brazil?
c. What do you think Lola will be doing at the moment?

5.
a. The computer firm is to create 300 new jobs at its assembly plant.

b. All mobile phones are to be left outside the examination room.
c. The government is to launch an enquiry next week.

6.
a. By the end of next year, over 80% of its customers will have moved to online banking.
b. Natasha will have had her exam results by now.
c. By the end of the year all of my data will have been analysed.

7.
a. She is making a speech at the conference next week.
b. I am not going to go out there — it's pouring with rain and I haven't got an umbrella.
c. We are having risotto for dinner. Is that okay with you?

C2:

3.1)

1. B
2. C
3. B
4. A
5. C

3.2)

1. He was about to resign from his cabinet position to run for Prime Minister, but then he lost his nerve.

2. We can’t make it to the game this Saturday because we will be catching up on housework.

3. Ji-ho and Shi-ah will have been a couple for more than a year by the time they graduate.

4. The government was on the verge of announcing the removal of trade restrictions.

5. Susan is aiming not to stay longer than two years in her current position.

6. Your yearly subscription is due to expire at the end of this month.

7. When this meeting has finally come to an end, will it be possible to speak to you in private?

8. She is bound to have little idea of what is going on around her most of the time.